MISSOURI STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

KIRKSVILLE

Grade fearing students listening to the knowledge speaking teachers; novices following the learned seniors; dances and parties terminating the days and weeks of preparation for the Homecoming, Christmas, social organizations and the sundry other campus functions combine to make you a major part of this epic of college life. You, your friends and your classmates made this years history as recorded in the following pages; absorb it with the pride of knowing that you were a part of the Bulldog spirit that link these pages into a sparkling reminiscence of by-gone days.

+dministration

No one studies harder, learns more, or awaits the bell any more than our teachers. No one worries more about our school or gives more time to its betterment than our administrators. From our simplest class problem to our most intimate secrets, they set the example for us and teach us how to cope with them. From the highest professor to the newest member of the staff—we learn from them and as true humans, they learn from the students. Here, then, are the ones that teach us the whats, whens, wheres, whys and hows of success, freedom and brotherhood.

Leaders in the college today; leaders of America tomorrow—that is the college student. They come as green freshmen, illiterate to the paths of college life. They progress to a higher standing and in their progression, they learn higher standards and morals. As their college life comes to a finale, the student finds that he is no longer the inexperienced embryo of innocence that set foot on the campus four years previously, but a social creature, seeking to glean success in struggling world. You see them here as the bud of progress.

Sigma Tau Gamma

Sigma Tau Gamma is a National Social Fraternity for men, and it is professional in its scope, its activities, and its relation to instruction. Until 1921, it existed on this campus as Phi Lambda Epsilon. In 1921 this organization affiliated with the National Organization of Sigma Tau Gamma as Beta Chapter. As a teachers college fraternity it is the oldest and largest in the United States.

The Sig Taus had an excellent year for 1955-56, what with pledging 37 men, winning first place for the most beautiful float in the Homecoming Parade, winning the King of Trump Night and of the Scho Dance, and to end the year right, the annual White Rose Banquet and formal dance, which was a big success.

Phi Sigma Epsilon

Phi Sigma Epsilon is a national Social Fraternity for men. This chapter was organized locally as Sigma Delta Tau in 1923, and was organized nationally in 1926 as one of the first three chapters in Phi Sigma Epsilon.

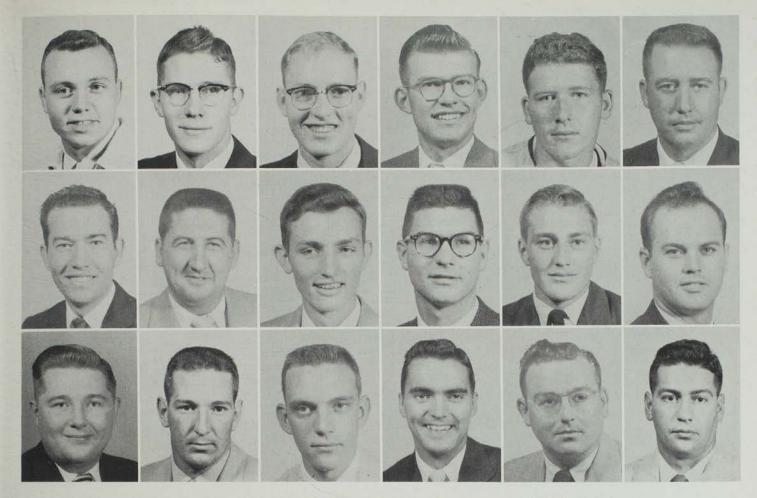

This year the Phi Sigs entered a float in the Homecoming parade, and featured a skit, "If Shakespeare Could See This." They had a good year as far as rushing goes also, and came out with 18 pledges.

This organization is sponsored by Duane Cole, and headed by Dale Favier, who is their president.

Alpha Kappa Lambda

Alpha Kappa Lambda started the year off right with a picnic at Forest Lake. This was followed by several informal house parties and topped off by the Annual Alumni-Active Homecoming Banquet.

The rush smoker and rush banquet brought 18 fine men in as pledges of A.K.I. The annual Pledge Dance carried the theme of the Devil's Dance. Big devils and little devils danced to the tune of strains from Hades.

The A.K.L. skit for Trump Night, "What's That Make Me," was a howling success. The Community Service Project which A.K.L. sponsors, was carried on successfully.

Ron Phillips wielded the gavel, with Chuck Seward Vice-President; Glen Easterday, Corresponding Secretary; Wayne Sterrett, Recording Secretary; Bob Eatock, Chaplain; George Vineyard, Historian; Chuck Woods, Treasurer, and Dr. Dean Rosebery as Sponsor.

A.K.L.'s in high places this year were—Glen Easterday and Ron Phillips in Blue Key; Glen Easterday in Who's Who and on the Student Council; Bill Barton as President of the Vets Club; and Charlie Ahn as President of International Club. Six other offices were held this year by members of Alpha Kappa Lambda.

Blue Key

The highest men's honor fraternity is one of the popular service fraternities on the campus. Probably the biggest service the Blue Key members do is the publishing of the student directory each year.

Other yearly projects of these Blue Key members are: showing the campus attractions to visitors on Parents Day, taking charge of the Homecoming Parade and ushering at baccalaureate and commencement exercises.

Pledgeship is not just an everyday occurrence of an everyday guy. The organization is limited to twenty men with high scholastic averages, outstanding qualities in character, service and leadership.

Cardinal Key

Two main projects of the year for Cardinal Key were the sale of Homecoming buttons and the sale of the commemorative Wedgwood plates, carrying the picture of Kirk Memorial.

These two projects helped to raise money for the organization to carry on its services to the campus. Cardinal Key girls acted as ushers at Civic Music Programs and assisted at a number of college functions.

The membership was kept at the maximum of twenty throughout the year.

Kappa Delta Pi

Holding professional meetings twice monthly, Kappa Delta Pi is a national honorary education society.

Sound personal ideals, scholarship, and educational ideals are required for membership into Tau Chapter of Kappa Delta Pi, which had 17 members this year.

Helping in the Bloodmobile donation drive, decorating the stands and President's box for the Homecoming game, comanaging the cloak room at school functions, helping with registration on Senior Day and at college conventions, running a concession stand at the Christmas Dance, holding an Ugly Man Dance, were but a few of the activities sponsored by APO this year.

Helping in the local scout movement, acting as guides on Parent's Day campus tours, and working with the KCOS chapter on the blood donation drive at the Jayce Merchandise Show rounded out the year's work. Members must have a Boy Scout background for this service organization.

Veteran's Club

The Veterans Club is new on this campus, this being it's first year of existence here. The Vet's Club is composed of veterans of the last two ways who are attending school here now.

The Vet's Club is sponsored by Wray Reiger and Eugene Croarkin, and it's officers are, William Barton, President, and Wayne Newman, Editor of the paper.

Pre-Osteopathic Club

The Pre-Osteopathic club spent a very quiet social year but progressed very much in attaining the professional attitude of the club. Many interesting lectures were presented to the club on osteopathy and many medical movies enlightened the group. The important projects of the club were their visit to Still-Hildreath Sanatorium at Macon and the traditional visit to KCOS.

The Pre-Osteopathic club feels that we have broadened our knowledge of osteopathy and the club has accomplished its goal to help make us more conscious of the need for good doctors of tomorrow.

College Players

This year's talented young actors produced two major plays and two one act programs. College players formed the casts for "My Three Angels" last Fall, and in the Spring, they came out with the famous production, "Oklahoma," which was done by the College Players and the Music Department combined, on April 17, 18, and 19, in Kirk Auditorium.

Two students directed one-act plays given February 21 in Little Theatre, which were "The Long Voyage Home," directed by Kenneth Barker, and "Early Frost," directed by Elaine Wellborn.

The Winter activities consisted of an assembly program, February 1, of four one-act plays which were take-offs on Broadway productions.

Masonic students may benefit from this club, which was re-organized on the campus this year after a lapse of four years, and is maintained for their benefit.

Opportunity is given to the members to continue their study in the history and philosophy of Masonry under the guidance of the co-sponsors, Richard St. Clair and Charles Elam.

At homecoming last fall the members prepared a very artistic and educational float. It won first prize in its classification.

Every year this organization sponsors an International Club dance, on March 7, and the decorations are imported from the students' own lands, such as flowers, etc.

Index Staff

The main aim of the Index staff this year is to win again the first place MCNA Plaque which they won last May for the best college paper in the state. As the Echo goes to press it is too early to know the outcome.

Colored nameplates and headlines prevailed and two special football and basketball issues also took top honors on the campus.

The Index also helped in the passing of the $75,000,000 Bond Proposition by printing pictures showing the need of repairs and new buildings on campus.

A trip to the University of Missouri Journalism Workshop this fall gave many staff members a new slant on newswriting.

Eloise Seaman kept the ads coming in all year while Pat Shelton Bristol and Edward S. Dodson kept the typewriter and linotype machines busy.

Miss Agnes Slemons, adviser, and H. Green Simpson, typographer, were always on hand when the first runs came off the press.

Baptist Student Union

We gave a big welcome to the new students last fall with our welcome booth in Baldwin Hall with smiles and lemonade for everyone. Six of our students and the Student Director took a trip to the Glorieta Baptist Assembly in Glorieta, N. M.

Religious Focus Week went over great with Mr. Denny and his five man crew.

With S/Sgt. John H. Reese, Jr., directing, our choir sang the interpretation of the theme at the State BSU Convention in Kansas City. Everyone was really mixed up at our backwards party in March, but in May no one was too mixed-up for food at our Spring Banquet.

Wesley Foundation

The 1955-56 Wesley Foundation has been quite an active group. They started out the school year with a trip to Lake Poinsett, South Dakota; then came the Watermelon Feed; our first Homecoming Float; our first Trump Night skit; our own Wesley Directory; the trip to Spring Retreat, and our own newspaper, "Campus Capers."

The regular Sunday night meetings were the most important and solved many of our campus problems. They were sometimes very entertaining too. We had twelve officers, who were headed by: Bennie Wilsey, president; Lorraine Jerome, Vice-President; Betty Ross, Scretary; and Carl Baldwin, Treasurer

The Wesley group will miss the Seniors next year, but we have quite a few Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen. So we should be real active next year, so see you, '56-'57.

Newman Club

The Newman Club is a newly organized club for Catholic students on this campus. It is part of a large organization all over the country. To assist in the social and spiritual lives of its membership is its function.

Speakers were brought from different sections of Missouri to talk on problems with which many young adults are faced. At Christmas we gave a dance for the members and their friends.

A retreat was held at Conception Abbey, and a trip to the University of Iowa's chapter were a few of the many projects of the club besides the banquet which ended the year's activities.

Political rallies, campaign badges, mud slinging and ballots, and then, a lot of great memories of election day. It all gave us an outstanding Student Council for '55-'56.

Dances after athletic events, Homecoming activities, assisting with Parents' Day in the fall and the preparation of the 5th Annual Trump Night were all a part of the Student Council activities.

Social Committee

From the first piece of crepe paper at the Homecoming Dance, to tearing down the last piece of decoration at the Echo Dance, the busy hands of the Student Social Committee worked.

The giant football for the entrance at the Homecoming Dance, the fireplace and the other decorations at the Christmas Dance, the Echo Dance decorations and the many letters to bands for all these dances were only part of this year's accomplishments by the Social Committee under Chairman Norma Wilson and the supervision of Dr. Pauline D. After all the judges' votes were tallied, Alpha Sigma Alpha received first place recognition with their skit titled "The Life of Ryley" wherein they showed the ordinary dull class room day, considerably exaggerated. Delta Sigma Epsilon took second prize with their version of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," slightly altered for underwater action, and called "Seaweed Green and the Seven Sponges." Football

Last year's M.I.A.A. champs came into this year's football season with 13 lettermen.

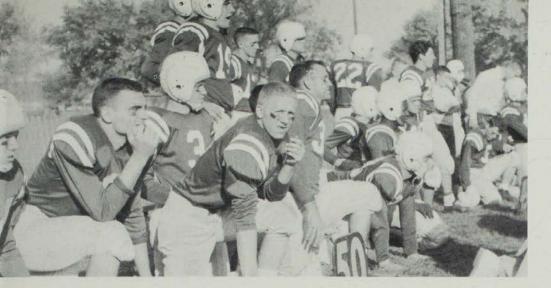

For their attempt at the fifth consecutive conference championship the Bulldogs were unsuccessful.

With their three-Co-Captains, George Anastasoff, Jerry Bolin and Roger Schwarztrauber, the Bulldogs were a fighting gang on the gridiron.

Basketball

With seven lettermen back this year, the Bulldogs claimed once more the MIAA Conference Championship.

Individual conference honors went to Rich Maack, the MIAA Basketball Sportsmanship Award and to Bill Ausmus, the Conference High Scoring Championship with 278 points.

The Bulldogs got off to a roaring start of eight consecutive victories before their first defeat. They met defeat only twice in conference play.

Showing exceptional accuracy, the Purple and White Cagers thrilled the crowds by breaking the 100 mark four times and ending their season with a 17-4 record.

W.A.A. started off the year by having a get-acquainted party for the freshmen. Next came the intramurals—team sports and individual and dual sports.

One of our biggest events of the year was our Sports Day which was March 10. Many college volleyball teams participated in Kirk Auditorium that day.

We traveled to Missouri University for their volleyball tournament, March 24. Last year we took second place.

At the W.A.A. Banquet, the awards and trophies were presented and the installation of our new officers for next year took place.

One hundred twenty-eight pages of work (plus a two-color cover, foreword, and color on first twenty-five pages) make up your '56 Echo.

The problems of putting them together in order was the one Editor Dewayne Wellborn and Assistant Editor Phil Williams faced, while paying for it was faced by Business Manager J. C. Shelton and Assistant Business Manager Mason Benn

The cover design, end sheets, foreword and division pages were designed by Marion Stroman, Jack and Jerry Harp, senior art students.

Serving as reporters and writers were Jim Hedges and Don Swayze and typing their material were typists Barbara Moles and Charmain Johnson, Photographer for this year was Kenneth Sykes of Sykes Studio, often times working night and day to meet deadlines.

Special thanks goes to Dr. and Mrs. Allen and their office staff in the Personnel Division in checking names and activities of students; to the Dean's Office sending all those Echo packages; to the Business Office for the salary checks at the end of each month; to the Office of the President for suggestions on the faculty and administration sections; to the Echo Board for their cooperation with the staff to give you a good Echo, and to the entire staff of the American Yearbook Company of Hannibal, the printers of this year's Echo.
